

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, Feb. 26.—To the surprise of the front street trade generally the egg market holds its own in the face of a steadily increasing supply of Oregon products, and instead of weakness displays a degree of strength.

When the decline was checked about a week ago it was predicted that the brisk trade that suddenly developed with the North could last but a short time, and that when this came to an end the downward movement would set in again and prices go to something like 16 or 17 cents. But this situation has not come, and it may not come at all. Trade with the Northern markets continues, and current receipts are cleaning up in a satisfactory manner. On the street today the general range of quotations was 22 to 23 cents.

Vegetable Stocks Are Light.
Supplies of sweet potatoes, celery, cauliflower and cabbage are rather light, and the truck market on the whole is firm at current prices. Few if any more sweet potatoes will be brought in from the South this season, and it is understood that cauliflower shipments from California are also practically ended. No car lot arrivals from the South were reported today.

Spuds and Onions Steady.
Dealers in potatoes and onions reported no developments today. In both lines the local market has held about steady since the first of the week, owing to the easier situation in the South, but the outlook is for a generally good trade with the South in the near future. A strong demand there than exist now is counted a certainty, and dealers are confident that fair prices will be maintained. Potatoes were quoted at $1.25 to $1.30 to growers today and onions at $1.75 to $2.00 a hundred.

Lined Oil Prices Lifted.
Another advance of 2 cents a gallon on lined oil was announced by the trade today. A short seed crop in the East and Middle West and consequently strong markets are given as the reasons for the upward trend in oil prices the past few weeks. A further lift in the near future would occasion no surprise. Other oils were unchanged today.

Poultry Generally Active.
The disposition of the large retailers to hold back somewhat the past few days had no effect on the poultry markets, which today was strong and active at the last range of quotations. The demand all the week has been chiefly for hens and chickens, but all lines moved, and the outlook is for a complete clean-up at the end of the week.

PLAY WITH THE KIDS.
Parents Advised To Get Next To The Children In Play.
CHICAGO, Feb. 26.—Recreation grounds for adults are urged by Miss Jane Adams in support of a theory advanced by Dr. Luther H. Gulick, president of the Playground Association of America, concerning the instinct of parents to play with their children.
"If there were opportunities for play between the adult and the youthful," she declared, "there would be no more dance hall evil and the strolling of young girls about the streets would cease. It is the withdrawal of the restraining influence of the elders when youth seeks recreation that leads them away from the right."

DUEL WITH WAX BULLETS.
NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Wax bullets were used last night in a duel at the New York Athletic Club. The combatants Eugene Pitou and Dr. Edward Fowler, standing 60 feet apart, each were hit just below the shoulder, but neither, of course, was injured, although the marks of the little pellets were plainly visible on the gowns specially worn for the contest. The bullets, which are the first importations to this country from France, were fired from the regulation French duelling pistol of .44 calibre. Considerable interest was taken in the novel spectacle and the new sport promises to be popular.

CONSUL HONORED.
SEATTLE, Feb. 26.—Andrew Chifery, royal vice consul of Sweden at Seattle has been given the decoration of a Knight of the First class of the Order of Vasa by King Gustaf V.

C. R. Kluger, the Jeweler, 1060 Virginia avenue, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "I was so weak from kidney trouble that I could hardly walk a hundred feet. Four bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy cleared my complexion, cured my backache and the irregularities disappeared, and I can now attend to business every day, and recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy to all sufferers, as it cured me after the doctors and other remedies had failed."
